Counsel for Plaintiff David Jonathan Thomas

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

David Jonathan Thomas,

Plaintiff,

v.

Isidro Baca, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 3:13-cv-00508-RCJ-CLB

Order Granting Stipulation for Extension of Time to File Proposed
 Joint Pretrial Order (ECF No. 192)
 (First Request)

The above-captioned parties stipulate and agree as follows:

1. On December 8, 2020, and after this Court entered its order on the mandate issued by the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit affirming a summary-judgment decision by this Court (ECF No. 187), the Court entered a minute order directing the parties to submit their proposed joint pretrial order by January 7, 2021 (ECF No. 190).

2. Shortly after the recent holidays, plaintiff David Jonathan Thomas retained the law firm of Holland & Hart LLP to represent him in this litigation. Given the recent retention of Holland & Hart, counsel for Mr. Thomas will need additional time to review the rich history of this case before being able to discuss an appropriate proposed joint pretrial order with counsel for defendants, including identifying the factual and legal issues that must be addressed at trial. The additional time will also provide the parties with an opportunity to discuss whether a settlement conference should be scheduled before a Magistrate Judge. If so, the parties would want to participate in a settlement conference to determine whether a trial is necessary.

3. In accordance with LR 26-3, this is the first request for an extension of the deadline to file a proposed joint pretrial order, and is made with good cause and in good faith and not for purposes of delay. The parties believe the extension of time will allow them to discuss and present a proposed joint pretrial order tailored to the factual and legal issues in this case, as well as allow them to discuss whether a settlement conference would be appropriate. Thus, for these reasons, the parties have agreed to extend the deadline to submit the proposed joint pretrial order by 32 days. If approved, the proposed joint pretrial order will now be due by Monday, February 8, 2021.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
